Mr Atulesh Jindal
Chairman
Central Board of Direct Taxes
New Delhi

Dear Mr. Jindal,

Publicity for Income Disclosure Scheme

In the course of a meeting last week with a FICCI delegation led by its President, the Hon'ble Prime Minister has sought the cooperation of FICCI in publicising the Scheme for Declaration of Undisclosed Income announced by the Finance Minister in his budget speech. The Prime Minister observed that the Scheme offers a unique opportunity to persons who are in possession of funds which need to be disclosed. The Prime Minister has urged FICCI to interact with its associate member bodies and other constituents and organise meetings wherein information about the provisions of the scheme could be disseminated and clarifications offered, if necessary.

FICCI fully supports this initiative of the Government in providing an opportunity to the concerned persons who wish to declare any undisclosed income. FICCI has accordingly decided to conduct workshops in partnership with its member associations in various important cities in the country to make the public aware of the provisions of the Income Disclosure Scheme. A list of places where we propose to conduct these workshops in the first instance is attached. We would request you to provide us the names and contact details of the resource persons from your department who could be requested to join FICCI and its member associations in conducting these workshops at these places and in answering queries, if any. We would also request you to provide us the technical literature/pamphlets on the subject which could be circulated amongst the participants at such workshops.

FICCI is keen to partner with the Government in making this endeavour a success.

Regards,

Yours sincerely,

A. Didar Singh
