Dear Sir

Sub: News Item titled "Chartered Accountants ki round table Conference" published in Dainik Bhaskar, Jaipur edition, dated July 30, 2018

Your attention is drawn to the News item titled "Chartered Accountants ki round table Conference" (as attached) that appeared in Dainik Bhaskar, Jaipur edition, dated July 30, 2018. It has been stated in the news item that Global Center for Entrepreneurship and Commerce & Association of Chartered Certified Accountant had organized a Round Table Conference at Jaipur.

The headline of the news item mentions that a Round Table Conference of Chartered Accountants, whereas the content of the news item mentions about the Round table Conference organized by Global center for Entrepreneurship and Commerce & Association of Chartered Certified Accountant. The headline is contradictory to the content.

Would like to bring to your notice that The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India had not organized any such programme, hence the headline used in the news item is not correct.

The ICAI takes a strong exception to the headline of the news item, as it is misleading / incorrect. It is quite unfortunate that the headline of the article appearing in a reputed publication is not in tandem with the news covered in the article.

We would like to inform that The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) is a statutory body set up under an Act of Parliament to regulate the Profession of Chartered Accountants in India. The Institute upholds the ethical values that form the hallmark of the profession.

You are requested to publish the necessary clarification in the form of news item in the same manner and at conspicuous position as the news item published earlier so as to put the facts in the right perspective.

We are sure that as responsible news daily, you will be discharging your said duty.

Thanking You

Yours faithfully
